SUNSET BEACH, NC – The tracts of land in the Town of Sunset Beach that were proposed for de-annexation by N.C. Senate Bill 875 will remain a part of the Town at this time. The proposed bill was defeated in the N.C. General Assembly’s House Finance Committee this afternoon. The bill could be reconsidered as a part of the new legislative session that starts in January.

“We thank Sen. Rabon and Rep. Iler along with their colleagues for listening to the community’s concerns with this legislation,” said Ron Watts, Sunset Beach Mayor. “No one is a winner from this; we know we need to continue the discussions with all involved so that we can resolve any issues as best we can for the community.”
